Because of the small size of the device, the compliance statement is placed in the manual instead of on the device label.

Label Placement:

Label will be placed here