

FCC LABEL

The label is molded directly into the plastic of the EUT.

Motorola RFA Transmitter Label

See Photo attachment for label placement on EUT

The following compliance statement is listed in the user's manual.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received including interference that may cause undesired operation.