

RADIO CONTROL CAR OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

Read all instructions carefully before playing.

- For your safety never play in the street.
- Remember to set the "ON/OFF" switch on bottom of car to "OFF" position before insert the batteries.
- Never store the car and transmitter with batteries inside. Used or dead batteries will be easy leaking harmful chemicals. It is better to remove all batteries from the car and transmitter if you are not going to use them.

HOW TO OPERATE

- Put batteries in transmitter and car as shown in figure. Make sure all batteries are at the correct polarity.
- Turn the "ON/OFF" switch which on the car to "ON" position. Then the car will act on Backward motion in circular path.
- Push the stick on transmitter, the car will respond in going Straight Forward.
- To change the direction of car, just release the stick; the car will act on Backward in circular path; until the car's head face to the direction as you desire. Push the stick, the car will go Forward in exactly the direction you want.

INSTRUCTION TO THE USER

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications.

The user is cautioned that changes and modifications made to the equipment without the approval of manufacturer could void the user's authority to operate this equipment.