Test Report – RF Exposure table 7 lists a duty correction factor of 18.6dBm for exposure, please confirm that this is a source-based duty correction factor that cannot be affected by the user.

That is correct. The user has no control over the protocol hard-coded into the device. This is the hardcoded source-based duty cycle for the radio.