

Rear View Of EUT

This statement will be placed in the User's Manual

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the Following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.