

September 6,2009

Extreme base station system

FCC ID: LKT-EXTR-36

Frequency and power determination before shipment:

Before the product shipment from the factory, the units pass automatic calibration sequence tests where the unit is calibrated (including power out) and the frequency is tested.

Base station installation.

The user configures the unit according to licensed frequencies(the user may have several frequencies).