

Pager – LPU-800
Operational description

1. General Description

- 1.1. The pager is the small mobile device allowing user to get different messages.
- 1.2. The pager's MMI (Man Machine Interface) gives possibility to communicate with outside world via LCD and push buttons (like in the cellular phone).

2. Functional Description

- 2.1. The pager has three main modes of operation:
 - a) Regular Pager Mode:
The pager receives & displays messages from Local Network.
 - b) Tx analyzer:
The pager receives all Tx messages and displays theirs status.
 - c) The supplementary mode allow controlling the ring type, volume & language.

Note: Tx- internal transmitter.