

Operating instructions for SA-AM 433,92MHz Transmitter / Receiver

The Remote Control has four integrated buttons which allows the user to operate the following functions via the RF communication:

- 1: Central locking button
- 2: Central unlocking button
- 3: Button for opening the luggage compartment
- 4: Button for panic alarm

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Note: The manufacturer is not responsible for ANY RADIO OR TV Interference caused by unauthorized modifications to this equipment.

Such modifications could void the users authority to operate the equipment.