

About Certification or DOC for MAP-811.

The subjective device is not Class B digital device, The RS-232 connector on the subjective device is for subjective device installation initial setting, please reference as user manual page 34 section 5.1 setting for telnet/ console management.

In the normal use condition, The RS-232 connector will not connect to any cable, only RJ45( Ethernet cable ) and power cord are connected to the subjective device.