Re: Certification for Continental Transmitter
 FCC ID: M3N83143000
 IC: 7812A-83143000

REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIALITY

Pursuant to FCC 47 CFR 0.457(d) and 0.459 and IC RSP-100, Section 10, Continental requests that a part of the subject application be held confidential. Continental has spent substantial effort in developing this product and it is one of the first of its kind in industry. Having the subject information easily available to "competition" would negate the advantage they have achieved by developing this product. Not protecting the details of the design will result in financial hardship.

1. Block Diagram includes internal oscillator frequency information that the manufacturer considers to be proprietary. Portions of the Description of Operation detail proprietary modes of operation for the device.
2. DUT is FULLY potted using a non-removable epoxy based material. Removal of potting material causes irreparable damage to internal circuitry. Photograph exhibits outline the half-clam-shell device before and after potting.

Permanent Confidentiality: Continental requests the exhibits listed above as permanently confidential be permanently withheld from public review.

Short-Term Confidentiality (FCC Only): Continental requests the exhibits selected above as short term confidential be withheld from public view for a period of 45 days from the date of the Grant of Equipment Authorization and prior to marketing.
