

Operational Description of CDO920-DI:

The CDO920-DI Ethernet Smartcard reader connects to server through the Ethernet port. It can able to read both Contact smartcard (ISO7816) and Contact less smartcard (ISO14443) data .To bring up the bi-directional communication mode connect the reader to the Ethernet port and power up the reader, both Contact and contact less smartcard has its data and it will be read out through the respective Contact and contact less interface and the data will be sent out to the Server through the Ethernet port. In Idle mode always there will be handshaking communication between Reader and Server.