

Operational Description

The VX-129CN is a double sideband, amplitude modulated, transmitter/receiver combination intended for mobile operation in the citizens radio service. The transmitter has 40-channel capability in the 26.965 - 27.405 MHz band utilizing phase locked loop (PLL) technology.