Re: Application for MXU Certification – MIJMXU2000N-R

Gentlemen:

Motorola, Inc., Systems Solutions Group, 8201 E. McDowell Rd, Scottsdale, Arizona 85252 herein submits: Remittance Advice (FCC Form 159 – per US Mail with Fee Codes EFT and EBC, $610.00 VISA), Application for Equipment Authorization (FCC Form 731 – Electronic Filing), and Exhibits (Electronic Filing) for Certification of the MXU, Portable Satellite Transceiver, under FCC Rule Part 25, FCC ID: MIJMXU2000N-R. Motorola is also the manufacturer of this equipment.

Although the Commission's Rules do not presently include mobile earth terminals in the Equipment Authorization program, the Sunshine Notice for the Commission's May 14, 1998, meeting indicates that the Commission will be proposing standards for approval of equipment used in the Global Mobile Personal Communications by Satellite service. The Commission will also be establishing an interim equipment approval program in order to begin implementation of the GMPCS-MoU Arrangements. This application should, therefore, be processed in accordance with that interim GMPCS equipment approval program.

In addition to confidentiality for the entire application prior to grant (per 47CFR0.457(d)(1)(ii)), Motorola requests, pursuant to 47CFR0.459, post-grant confidentiality for identified sections of the filing material contained in this application with this material being withheld from public inspection following the grant of this authorization. This material includes Exhibit 5, Circuit Diagrams and Exhibit 6, Circuit Descriptions. Specifically, these exhibits contain information relating to circuit function and complexity that could be of benefit to competitors. This material contains Motorola's trade secrets and confidential information which Motorola does not customarily release to the public and which, otherwise, is not generally available to the public.

Please contact me by telephone at (602) 441-3725, by facsimile at (602) 441-3625, or by email at P19838@email.mot.com if there are any further questions or additional information needed regarding the filing.

Sincerely,
