Question #1: This device is capable of running at 1280 x 1024 resolution.
Through out the test report, there is no where mentioned the active resolution was used during the tests. How many video resolutions were investigated and the test data presented in the test report is for which resolution ?

Question #2: FCC ID label format only show the label location. Please provide a clear copy to show FCC ID label format.

Best Regards
