

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (receiver) is powered by 5Vdc from host equipment. The type of antenna is Strip antenna. The output power of this device is very low. Under normal use condition, the transmitter and the receiver are quite close, so high EIRP power is neither necessary nor allowed because of interference.