

REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIALITY

If you do not require confidentiality your exhibits are visible on the FCC website for everyone. A request for confidentiality must be indicated in item 8 of the 731 form and a letter making specific request for confidentiality must accompany the application as a separate exhibit. This letter must state exactly which portions of the application are to be held in confidence and for what specific reason. Only certain exhibits may be held in confidence. schematic diagrams, operational descriptions, users manuals and internal photos are candidates for this. Users manuals will only be held in confidence under certain conditions i.e. when the manual will only be available to licensed or specially trained personnel.

Internal photographs will only be held in confidence if the device is sealed using special fasteners that cannot be opened using common hand tools or if the PCB's are completely potted.

The FCC is a federal agency and as such has duties to the public to disclose information made known to it (see 47 CFR 0).

The FCC has a procedure to handle confidential items and any request will be delivered to the FCC for them to decide if it can be held in confidence.

A request for confidentiality does not guarantee that the FCC will grant it.

Please find below a sample letter for confidentiality request.

Request for Confidentiality

Company name: Soaring Technology CO., LTD

FCC ID: MXCSCBX3010-M

FCC Part 15 Certification

Gentlemen,

In accordance with 0.459 of CFR 47, Soaring Technology CO., LTD hereby requests confidentiality of all Block Diagrams, Circuit Description, Circuit Diagrams, Parts List, Operational Description attachments for the subject application.

These documents contain detailed system and equipment description and related information about the product which Soaring Technology CO., LTD considers to be proprietary, confidential and a custom design and otherwise would not release to the general public. Since the design is a basis from which future technological products will evolve, Soaring Technology CO., LTD considers that this information would be of benefit to its competitors and that the disclosure of the information in these documents would give competitors an unfair advantage in the market.

Sincerely,

Signature
