RE: GEMTEK TECHNOLOGY CO., LTD.

FCC ID: MXF-M921015AG

I have a few comments on the above referenced Application.

Basic Information

- 1) The modular request letter requests a limited modular approval to "mobile devices such as access points and routers". However, the users manual appears to show a laptop computer. Please clarify. Additionally, the users manual provided should be strictly for the module and the information provided to the OEM integrators (not the manual for the end use device). Please provide.
