Dear Federal Communications Commission:

Wild Planet Toys, Inc is in the business of designing, manufacturing, and marketing of toys for children. Our market to these children is worldwide and it is extremely competitive. It is not uncommon for our competition to attempt to copy our products and market them under there own name.

Due to this risk of being copied by others, we request that no information supplied to the Federal Communications Commission by Wild Planet Toys, Inc. be made available to 3rd parties outside of the Federal Communications Commission.

Thank you,

Hal Middleton
