Dear Mr. Fabina,

Please find below the responses to your comments regarding our Certification application. I have replied to your comments using the same numbers and in the order received.

1. A schematic diagram of the transmitter has been sent via email to Marianne Bosley. The transmitter module is made by Panasonic for Gilbarco. They request that the schematic be held confidential. We (at Gilbarco) are not privy to their circuit diagram(s).
2. A block diagram of the transmitter has been sent via email to Marianne Bosley. The transmitter module is made by Panasonic for Gilbarco. They request that the schematic be held confidential. We (at Gilbarco) are not privy to their circuit diagram(s).
3. A confidentiality request letter for Industry Canada has been uploaded.
File name "IC Request for Confidentiality.PDF"
4. A new confidentiality request letter for the FCC has been uploaded.
File name "FCC Request for Confidentiality.PDF"
5. The FCC and IC confidentiality request letters include the internal photos exhibit and a brief explanation of why we are requesting confidentiality for this exhibit.
6. Thank you for this information
7. Thank you for this information. The Class A test report

I hope the above responses are satisfactory. Please let me know if there is anything else I may help with.

Best Regards,
