

DECLARATION FOR DISMISSAL,

Pertaining to confidential material given out in the case of our already FCC compliant short range device product "RS4",

We, Hella KGaA Hueck & Co., would like to request the dismissal of the FCC ID: NBG01RS4. Reasons:

- This product has not yet entered the market, it is currently in its last stages before entering its start of production.
- Planned release would be during the month of January, 2018.
- The maximum of 180 days from the first Request for non-disclosure have already passed.

The last reason mentioned above means technical data, such as internal photos, schematics, layouts, bills of materials, and test reports, which need customarily be guarded from competitors, would unfortunately become public to competitors.

The continuous guarding of the sensitive data is further needed.

Therefore, the above mentioned documents should not be accessible to the general public.

On behalf of the company Hella KGaA Hueck & Co.,

We hereby thank you in advance, and remain at your service for any questions you may have.
