

Label and location:

The image shows a green rectangular label for an AT&T device. At the top left is the AT&T globe logo. To its right is the model number 'C71KW-400'. In the top right corner, there is a power symbol '12V=1.5A' with a battery icon and a '+' sign, and the text 'MADE IN CHINA'. Below the model number, the serial number 'SN: X71EAYDDXXXXXX' is printed in pink. This is followed by a pink barcode. Below the barcode is the MAC address 'MAC: XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX' in pink, followed by another pink barcode. The manufacturing date 'Mfg date: MM/DD/YY' is also in pink. The main body of the label contains regulatory information: 'Manufactured under license from Dolby Laboratories. Dolby, Dolby Audio, and the double-D symbol are trademarks of Dolby Laboratories.' followed by 'FCC ID: NKR-ATTC71KW' and a paragraph stating the device complies with FCC rules and listing two conditions. To the right of this text are the FCC and UL logos. Below the FCC text is a license notice for non-commercial home use. At the bottom left is a 'WARNING' section about electrical parts containing chemicals. At the bottom right is the instruction 'Please use UL listed adaptor'. A small red '+' symbol is located at the bottom center of the label.
