

1. Place the battery on the film and align the battery to the lines.

2. In production line, the thin film will be folded along the dotted-lines

3. When the user purchases the product, the user needs to open the battery cover for the 1st time use.
4. The user will be able to pull out the thin film by pulling the yellow circle illustrated above.

