

Tuning Procedure

The CE-1819 PCS Band Enhancer has only one tuning adjustment for the rf signal. The AGC (Automatic Gain Control) is set to limit the rf output power to 20 Watts when connected to a GSM/EDGE Base Station Transmitter and is set to maximum rf output of 40 Watts when connected to a CDMA Base Station Transmitter. These adjustments are done upon installation of the device by qualified installation personnel.