

Tuning Procedure

The CE-1819-10G2 PCS Cell Enhancer has no internal field tuning adjustment for the rf signal. All adjustments are performed at the factory. It is the responsibility of the customer to limit the input power to 1.6 Watts when connected to either a GSM/EDGE or CDMA BaseStation transmitter. This adjustment is done by means of a high power attenuator and is performed upon installation of the device by qualified personnel only.