

4) Kindly explain how the device is permanently marked as required by 2.925(d)(1). Their doesn't appear to be a label and the back of the device (external photos) didn't support any sort of area for etching.

The label provided will be laser etched onto the curved surface of the product.