

Choice of Modulation rates for testing

Prior testing has shown that power levels are independent of modulation rate and the device was tested in 64QAM mode as a mode had to be chosen and this was the highest data rate.