

Tune-up procedures -

Equipment is factory aligned and calibrated at time of manufacture, and designed to retain calibration ; therefore no field tune-up or alignment is necessary.