

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Wireless Access Point) is powered by AC Adapter and connected with PC through RJ45. The antenna is monopole and should be rotated vertically when operation. Under normal use condition, the device should be placed at least 20 cm far away from the user or nearby person.

The other instruction, please have a look at the users manual.