

Federal Communications Commission
7435 Oakland Mills Road
Columbia MD 21046

Date: June 19, 2003

Subject: Request the Commissions to dismiss the TCB application

Reference: Applicant : Altrusty Enterprise Co Ltd
FCC ID: OAVCT68TX
TCB Confirmation No: TC533662
TCB Grant Date: 09/05/2002

To Whom It May Concern:

Compliance Certification Services (CCS) is TCB who issued Grant of Equipment Authorization on behalf of FCC. Above application was granted by CCS on Sept 05, 2002 and received FCC audit review notification on Nov. 13, 2002. under Correspondence Reference Number (CRN) :5829 from Mr. Joe Dichoso. In the audit review, Joe mentioned that this device is learned transmitter with the following technical questions to be addressed : The filing should not have been granted due to the following...

- 1) This is a learnable transmitter. Can it be used with any transmitter?
- 2) How is the device prevented from operating on frequencies other than those listed and in the restricted bands?
- 3) How will the device meet the average limits when it learns the codes of other systems?
- 4) There are some average data that are above the average limits. However, you used a 100% duty factor. You must show that the device will comply with the average limits.

CCS has contacted the test lab submitted the application and requested additional technical information to be provided in order to address above questions. CCS has not received any replies from the Test Lab. Yesterday (June 18,2003), CCS sent an e-mail to the applicant directly and mentioned this application is still under FCC audit review and reply from the applicant should be given within 5 working days. CCS received the reply from the applicant, Mr. Mao-Shen Wang (General Manager) and indicated that above device has not been sold to the U.S. and Altrusty is not going to market this device in the future and request CCS to dismiss the application.

Based upon above statement, CCS is requesting the Commission to dismiss above mentioned application. If you have any question, please feel free to contact the undersigned.

Best Regards

Compliance Certification Services

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mike Kuo", written over a horizontal line.

Mike Kuo / Vice President

561F Monterey Road Morgan Hill CA 95037 Tel: (408) 463-0885 x:105