

Digital Modulation Techniques

The Booster provides 12.0 dB of gain to all signals generated by a GSM PCS Base Station. The Base Station generates a digitally modulated signal using a GMSK modulation type. This signal is input into the Booster and then amplified up to a maximum of 20 Watts (+43.0 dBm).