

Operation Description for RC Cross Country

The RC Cross Country is powered by 1 x 9V size battery. There are two control trigger and one on/off switch in the body. The radio frequency channel is 27.145MHz. When the device is switched on and the trigger is pressed once, it will transmit different radio control signal to receiver.