

The image shows the top view of a black computer mouse. A red outline highlights a rectangular area on the left side of the mouse, which is the left button. The text "Label Location" is written in red inside this outlined area. To the right of the highlighted area, there is a scroll wheel and two additional buttons. The mouse has a textured surface and a small notch on the right side.

Label
Location