Dear Sir or Madam:

We, Vecima Networks Inc. hereby declare that product: model TRI2526+ is electrically identical with the same electromagnetic emissions and electromagnetic compatibility characteristics as model: TR2526+ of products tested by BACL, the results of which are featured in BACL project: R1110181.

A description of the differences between the tested model and those that are declared similar are as follows:

TRI2526 has an integrated antenna, the TR2526 has an external wired antenna. They are in different enclosures.

Please contact me should there be need for any additional clarification or information.

Sincerely

Alan Bayko
