

RF Exposure information

■ The contents which are given to end users by owner's manual

- This wireless charger complies with FCC RF exposure guidelines at the distance of 10 cm (3.94 in.).
- Keep a distance of at least 10 cm (3.94 in.) between all occupants and the wireless charger when charging.
- Don't remove the wireless charger yourself; contact your dealer for assistance.
- The area which satisfy RF exposure compliance of FCC requirement based on RF exposure measurement is shown in Interface specification of owner's manual.

■ The contents which are given to OEM integrators by installation manual

- This owner specific information is required to satisfy FCC RF exposure compliance for any vehicle installed this wireless charger.
- This wireless charger must be installed in the designed location in order to satisfy FCC RF exposure compliance.