

Side of the device

The diagram shows a central gray rounded rectangle with the text "Side of the device" at the top. Inside this rectangle is a smaller light blue rounded rectangle with the text "label location" centered within it. To the left and right of the central rectangle are two smaller gray rounded rectangles, one on each side, representing additional components or views of the device.

label location