RE: TeLLUS Group Corp.
FCC ID: PB6-02011

Dear Timothy:

After the review of your comments, we have made some response upon your advice; they are summarized as follows:

1. The updated "Request for Confidentiality" is uploaded, added the block diagram be a part to be held in confidential.
2. The manual with the part you mentioned is added and uploaded, the Compliance sheet should be shown in the manual for the DoC device is also added and uploaded.
3. The TeLLUS wants to designate the uses of the device to be only for the MODULE use, TeLLUS have followed you comments about adding the special instruction for the OEM integrator in the manual as the modular approval applied. Please find the materials uploaded.
4. The RBW & VBW of the testes are 100kHz.

Should you have any questions or more information is needed, please don't hesitate to ask us.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Eric Wong
