Installaing Outdoor & Indoor units and Third-party External Antennas

1. The device cannot be sold retail, to the general public or by mail order, it must be sold to dealers.
2. Installation must be controlled.
3. Installation must be preformed by licensed professionals.
4. Installation requires special training because a standard N-type connector is used on third-party external antenna.

The device is not intended for use by general public, only for industry/commercial use.
