Gentlemen,

FCC ID: PJ5RAY53

This letter forms part of an application for transfer of the FCC ID for the RAY 53 Marine VHF Radio. The reason for the application is a change in company control as detailed in the accompanying letter. The following information is provided, as required by Section 2.933(b)(1) to (4):

The original identification of the RAY 53 is FCC ID: ASLRAY53.

The original FCC grant was made on March 9th, 2000.

The product has not been changed in any respect, except that Raymarine will replace the brand name Raytheon

The original test results continue to be representative and applicable to the product bearing the new FCC ID: PJ5RAY53

Other exhibits submitted are:

FCC ID label drawing for the RAY 53 and the associated label placement drawing.

Statement of old and new FCC ID's involved

This application is one of a group of eight for transfer of FCC ID. The products involved are either marine VHF radios or light marine radars and the fee for both equipment classes is $495. The single fee due has been paid with the application for FCC ID: PJ5RAY100.

Sincerely,
