

RATIONALE FOR HOLDING INTERNAL PHOTOS CONFIDENTIAL

The CPE is not intended to be accessible for the user. The chassis is constructed in such a way that it must be broken in order to open the chassis. The user is warned that opening the chassis will damage the device and void the warranty.

For this reason we believe that it is reasonable to consider internal views of the device as confidential and not accessible by reasonable means.