

Declaration for ETS300826

For

MITSUMI ELECTRIC CO., LTD

IUT name: Bluetooth Module WML-C05##

Declaration

The module WML-C05## is designed by Mitsumi for the use in several other products released by Mitsumi's customers. Mitsumi has specified requirements for the integration of the module into the products of Mitsumi's customers.

Mitsumi's customers are not allowed to perform any changes on the module and they have to fulfil the integration requirements specified by Mitsumi.

Because the module will be integrated into products which will have their own housings, the ESD (electrostatic discharge) tests required by ETS300826 have not been performed on the module and have to be performed by Mitsumi's customers on the end product.
