Dear Sir / Madam

FCC submission PW9DA5815 – Device Testing and Variants

The DA5815 unit tested for the original FCC MAYDA5815 submission is no longer in production. The DA5819-011 tested for this application has been developed from the DA5815. The DA5815 and DA5819-011 are both part of the same 2MS product family.

The other 2MS variants listed in the Operation Description document are considered to be Class 1 permissive changes to the tested DA5819-011 unit.

Yours faithfully

Samantha Ridler BEng MIEE
Compliance Engineer
