

LABELS – Scale 1:1

The product is marked directly on the back of the plastic enclosure, through a laser etching process, with the informations about the FCC Certification.

The laser process assured the indelibility of the marking

Label 2

A window on the carton box of the product allows to see from the outside the informations concerning the product

