

Operational Description

The transmitter of the EUT (Home Security) is powered by 12Vdc from AC adapter. The output power of this device is very low. Under normal use condition, the transmitter and the receiver are quite close, so high EIRP power is neither necessary nor allowed because of interference.

For more detailed instruction, please take a look at the user's manual.