Emergency calls

Calls can be guaranteed under all conditions. Never rely solely upon phones for essential communications. Calls may not be possible in all areas, on all networks, or when certain network services and/or phone features are used.

Antenna

Use of antenna devices not marketed by Sony Ericsson could damage your phone, reduce performance, and produce SAR levels above the established limits. Do not cover the antenna with your hand as this affects call quality, power levels and can shorten talk and standby times.

Radio frequency (RF) exposure and Specific Absorption Rate (SAR)
When your phone or Bluetooth handsfree is turned on, it emits low levels of radio frequency energy. International safety guidelines have been developed through periodic and thorough evaluation of scientific studies. These guidelines establish permitted levels of radio wave exposure. The guidelines include a safety margin designed to assure the safety of all persons and to account for any variations in measurements. Specific Absorption Rate (SAR) is used to measure radio frequency energy absorbed by the body when using a phone. The SAR value is determined at the highest certified power level in laboratory conditions, but because the phone is designed to use the minimum power necessary to access the chosen network, the actual SAR level can be well below this value. There is no proof of difference in safety based on difference in SAR value.

Products with radio transmitters sold in the US must be certified by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). When required, tests are performed when the phone is placed at the ear and when worn on the body. For body-worn operation, the phone has been tested when positioned a minimum of 15 mm from the body without any metal parts in the vicinity of the phone or when properly used with an appropriate Sony Ericsson accessory and worn on the body. For more information about SAR and radio frequency exposure go to: www.sonyericsson.com/health.

Malware

Malware (short for malicious software) is software that can harm your phone or other computers. Malware or harmful applications can include viruses, worms, spyware, and other unwanted programs. While your device does employ security measures to resist such efforts, Sony Ericsson does not warrant or represent that your device will be impervious to introduction of malware. You can however reduce the risk of malware attacks by using care when downloading content or accepting applications, refraining from opening or responding to messages from unknown sources, using trustworthy services to access the Internet, and only downloading content to your phone from known, reliable sources.

Accessories

Use only Sony Ericsson branded original accessories and certified service partners. Sony Ericsson does not test third-party accessories. Accessories may influence RF Exposure, radio performance, sound loudness, electric safety and other areas. Third-party accessories and parts may pose a risk to your health or safety or decrease performance.

Accessible Solutions/Special Needs

In the US, compatible Sony Ericsson phones may offer compatibility with TTY terminals (with use of necessary accessories). For more information call the Sony Ericsson Special Needs Center on 877 878 1996 (TTY) or 877 207 2056 (voice), or go to www.sonyericsson-snc.com.

Disposal of old electrical and electronic equipment

Electrical equipment and cables should not be discarded as household waste but should be left at an appropriate collection point for recycling. This helps prevent potential negative consequences for the environment and human health. Check local regulations by contacting your local city or county, your household waste disposal service, the shop where you purchased the product or calling a Sony Ericsson Call Center.

Disposing of the battery

Check local regulations or call a Sony Ericsson Call Center for information.

Never dispose of in open waste.

Memory Card

If your product comes complete with a removable memory card, it is generally compatible with the handset purchased but may not be compatible with other devices or the capabilities of their memory cards. Check other devices for compatibility before purchase or use. If your product is equipped with a memory card reader, check memory card compatibility before purchase or use.

The memory card is formatted prior to shipping. To reformat the memory card, use a compatible device. Do not use the standard operating system format when formatting the memory card on a PC. For details, refer to the operating instructions of the device or contact customer support.

WARNING:
• If your device requires an adapter for insertion into the handset or another device, do not insert the card directly without the required adapter.

Precautions on Memory Card Use

- Do not insert the memory card to moisture.
- Do not touch terminal connections with your hand or any metal object.
- Do not strike, bend, or drop the memory card.
- Do not attempt to disassemble or modify the memory card.
- Do not use or store the memory card in humid or corrosive locations or in excessive heat such as a closed car in summer, in direct sunlight or near a heater, etc.
- Do not press or bend the end of the memory card adapter with excessive force.
- Do not let dirt, dust, or foreign objects get into the insert port of any memory card adapter.
- Check you have inserted the memory card correctly.
- Insert the memory card as far as it will go into any memory card adapter needed. The memory card may not operate properly unless fully inserted.
- We recommend that you make a backup copy of important data. We are not responsible for any loss or damage to content you store on the memory card.
- Recorded data may be damaged or lost when you remove the memory card or memory card adapter, or turn off the power while formatting, reading or writing data, or when you use the memory card in locations subject to static electricity or high electrical field emissions.

Es posible que la información basada en la ubicación del dispositivo se interrumpa o presente errores y/o admida, depender de la disponibilidad del servicio de Geolocalización en las zonas donde se encuentran los dispositivos. Los accesos pueden afectar la exposición a RF, la radio, el volumen del sonido, la seguridad eléctrica y otras áreas. Los accesorios y las piezas de reemplazo pueden suponer un riesgo a su salud o seguridad o una disminución del rendimiento.
Soluciones accesibles/Necesidades especiales
En EE. UU., los teléfonos Sony Ericsson compatibles pueden ofrecer compatibilidad con las terminales TTY (con los accesorios necesarios). Para obtener más información, llame al Sony Ericsson Special Needs Center al 877 878 1996 (TTY) o al 877 207 2056 (voz), o visite www.sonyericsson-snc.com.

Antena
El uso de dispositivos con antena no comercializados por Sony Ericsson puede dañar el teléfono, reducir su rendimiento y producir niveles SAR superiores a los límites establecidos. No cubra la antena con la mano ya que esto afecta la calidad de la señal. Evite el nivel de potencia y reduce los tiempos de conversación y espera.
Exposición a las señales de radiofrecuencia (RF) y Tasa específica de absorción (SAR)
Cuando el teléfono o el manos libres Bluetooth está encendido, emite bajas niveles de energía de radiofrecuencia. Se han desarrollado especificaciones internacionales de seguridad a través de evaluaciones periódicas y minuciosas de estudios científicos. Estas especificaciones establecen los niveles permitidos de exposición a ondas de radio. Las especificaciones incluyen un margen de seguridad destinado a garantizar la seguridad de todas las personas y representar las variaciones en las mediciones. La Tasa específica de absorción (SAR) se utiliza para medir la energía de radiofrecuencia que absorbe el cuerpo al utilizar un teléfono móvil. El valor de SAR correspondiente al nivel más alto registrado en condiciones de laboratorio, pero ya que el teléfono está diseñado para utilizar el mínimo de potencia necesario para acceder a la red eléctrica, el nivel real de SAR puede estar muy por debajo de dicho valor. No existe evidencia de diferencia en los niveles de seguridad cuando el valor de SAR es distinto.
Los productos con radiotransmisores vendidos en los EE. UU. deben estar certificados por la Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Cuando se requieren pruebas de seguridad se realizarán con el teléfono en la oreja y cuando se lleve cerca del cuerpo. Para su uso cerca del cuerpo, este teléfono ha sido probado para su funcionamiento a una distancia mínima de 15 mm del cuerpo, sin que haya piezas metálicas cerca del teléfono o cuando se utiliza correctamente con el accesorio adecuado Sony Ericsson. Para obtener más información acerca de SAR y la exposición a la radiofrecuencia, visite: www.sonyericsson.com/health.

Malware
Malware (forma abreviada de “malicious software”, en inglés) es un software que puede dañar el teléfono móvil u otros computadores. El malware o las aplicaciones perjudiciales pueden incluir virus, gusanos, spyware y otros programas no deseados. Si bien el dispositivo emplea medidas de seguridad para impedir dichos problemas, Sony Ericsson no garantiza ni declara que el dispositivo sea impenetrable por el ingreso de malware. Sin embargo, para reducir el riesgo de ataques de malware puede tener cuidado cuando descarga contenido o acepta aplicaciones, evitar abrir o responder mensajes de origen desconocido, utilizar servicios seguros para acceder a Internet y descargar en el teléfono solamente contenido de fuentes confiables y confiables.

Alguns fabricantes de carros permitem o uso de celulares nos respectivos veículos, exceto se o kit handsfree tiver uma antena externa instalada. Consulte o representante do fabricante do seu veículo para verificar se o celular ou se o handsfree Bluetooth não afetará os sistemas eletrônicos do carro. Esteja sempre atento ao dirigir e conheça as leis e regulamentos locais que restringem o uso de dispositivos sem fio com o carro em movimento.
GPS/funções com base em locais

Alguns produtos oferecem GPS/funções com base em locais. A funcionalidade de determinação da localização é fornecida “No estado em que se encontra” e “Com todas as falhas”. A Sony Ericsson não garante a precisão dessas informações de localização. O uso das informações baseadas na localização pelo dispositivo talvez não seja interrompido ou livre de erros e, além disso, pode depender da disponibilidade do serviço de rede. Essa funcionalidade pode ser reduzida ou não funcionar em alguns ambientes, como dentro ou ao redor de edifícios.

Aviso: não use a funcionalidade GPS enquanto estiver dirigindo para não se distrair.

Chamadas de emergência

As chamadas não podem ser garantidas sob todas as condições. Nunca dependa somente de celulares para comunicações essenciais. Pode não ser possível fazer chamadas de emergência em todas as áreas, em todas as redes de telefonia celular ou quando determinados serviços da operadora e/ou os recursos do celular estiverem em uso.

Antena

O uso de antenas não comercializadas pela Sony Ericsson especificamente para este modelo pode danificar o celular, reduzir o desempenho e gerar níveis de SAR acima dos limites estabelecidos. Não toque na antena com os mãos, isso afeta a qualidade da chamada, os níveis de energia e pode diminuir o tempo de conversação e espera.

Exposição à radiofrecência (RF) e taxa de absorção específica (SAR)
A taxa de absorção específica é usada para medir a quantidade de energia de radiofrecência absorvida pelo corpo durante o uso de um celular. O valor da SAR é determinado no nível certificado de energia mais alto em condições de laboratório, mas como o telefone foi projetado para usar o mínimo de energia necessário para acessar a rede escolhida, o nível real de SAR do celular em operação pode estar bem abaixo desse valor. Não há evidências de diferença em segurança com base na diferença em valor SAR.

Conditions générales

1 La garantie limitée n'est valide que sur présentation d'une preuve d'achat d'origine de ce Produit, émise par un distributeur Sony Ericsson autorisé et spécifiant la date de l'achat et le numéro de série, accompagnant le Produit à réparer ou à remplacer. Sony Ericsson se réserve le droit de refuser le service sous garantie si ces renseignements ont été supprimés ou modifiés après l'achat initial du Produit. 2 Si Sony Ericsson répare ou remplace le Produit, la réparation de la défaectuosité ou le Produit remplacé sera couvert pendant la durée restante de la garantie initiale accordée au moment de l'achat ou pour une période de quatre-vingt-dix (90) jours à compter de la date de réparation, selon la durée la plus longue. La réparation et le remplacement peuvent être effectués au moyen d'unités équivalentes au plan fonctionnel et remises à neuf. Les pièces ou éléments qui sont remplacés deviennent la propriété de Sony Ericsson.

3 La présente garantie ne couvre pas une défectuosité du Produit attribuable à l'usure normale ou à une mauvaise utilisation, notamment une utilisation ou un entretien non conformes aux instructions de Sony Ericsson pour l'utilisation et l'entretien du Produit. Cette garantie ne couvre également pas les défaillances du Produit à la suite d'un accident, d'une modification ou d'un ajustement de logiciel ou de matériel, d'une catastrophe ou de dommages causés par des liquidés. Une batterie rechargeable peut être chargée et déchargée plus de cent fois. Toutefois, elle finira par s'user – il ne s'agit pas d'une défaectuosité, mais plutôt d'un phénomène d'usure normal. Lorsque le temps de conversation ou le temps de veille est significativement plus court, il faut remplacer la batterie. Sony Ericsson recommande d'utiliser uniquement des batteries et des chargeurs approuvés par Sony Ericsson. La luminosité et le couleur d'affichage peuvent varier légèrement d'un téléphone à l'autre. Deux pixels défectueux constituent un écart acceptable. L'image de la caméra peut varier légèrement d'un téléphone à l'autre. Ce type de différence est assez courant et n'est pas considéré comme une défaectuosité. 4 Étant donné que le réseau cellulaire sur lequel le Produit sera utilisé est fourni par un exploitant indépendant, Sony Ericsson n'est pas responsable de l'exploitation, de la disponibilité, de la couverture, des services et de la portée de ce réseau. 5 La présente garantie ne s'applique pas dans le cas de défaectuosité du Produit causées par l'installation d'autres produits, ou par la modification, la réparation ou l'ouverture du produit effectué par des personnes non autorisées par Sony Ericsson. 6 Cette garantie ne couvre pas les défaillances du Produit causées par l'utilisation d'accessoires ou de périphériques autres que les accessoires authentiques Sony Ericsson conçus pour votre Produit. 7 Toute modification des sceaux sur le Produit entraînera l'annulation de la garantie. 8 CETTE GARANTIE LIMITÉE ÉCRITE EST LA SEULE OFFERTE PAR ERICSSON. Alimentation (chargeur)

Branchez le chargeur aux sources d'alimentation indiquées sur le produit. N'utilisez pas le chargeur à l'intérieur ou dans des endroits humides. Ne modifiez pas le fil et évitez de l'endommager ou de lui faire subir des contraintes. Débranchez le chargeur avant de le nettoyer. Ne modifiez jamais la fiche. Si elle n'entre pas dans la prise, faites installer une prise adéquate par un électricien. Lorsque le chargeur est branché, il consomme une petite quantité d'énergie. Afin d'éviter cette faible perte d'énergie, débranchez le chargeur une fois l'appareil complètement chargé. L'utilisation d'un chargeur d'une autre marque que Sony Ericsson peut augmenter les risques liés à la sécurité.

Batterie

La capacité d'une batterie neuve ou inutilisée peut être réduite à court terme. Chargez complètement la batterie avant d'utiliser l'appareil pour la première fois. Utilisez la batterie uniquement pour l'usage recommandé. La batterie doit être chargée à une température entre plus 5 °C (41 °F) et 45 °C (113 °F). Ne mettez pas la batterie dans votre bouche. Ne chargez la batterie que dans le chargeur prévu à cet effet. Mettez l'appareil hors tension avant de retirer la batterie. Le rendement de la batterie varie en fonction de la température, de l'intensité du signal, des habitudes d'utilisation, des fonctions choisies et des transmissions vocales et de données. Seuls les partenaires de service Sony Ericsson devraient retirer ou remplacer les batteries intégrées. L'utilisation d'une batterie d'une autre marque que Sony Ericsson peut augmenter les risques liés à la sécurité.

Dispositifs médicaux personnels

Les téléphones mobiles peuvent nuire au bon fonctionnement de certaines prothèses médicales. Le risque d'interférence est moindre si l'orne garde une distance de 15 cm (6 pouces) entre le téléphone et le dispositif médical. Portez le téléphone à l'oreille droit. Ne placez pas le téléphone dans la poche de poitrine de votre chemise. Si vous croyez qu'il y a interférence, mettez le téléphone hors tension. Pour tous les types de dispositifs médicaux, consultez un médecin et le fabricant du dispositif.

Sécurité routière

Certains constructeurs d'automobiles proscrivent l'utilisation de téléphones mobiles dans leurs véhicules, à moins qu'une trousse mains libres comprenant une antenne extérieure soit utilisée. Vérifiez auprès de votre concessionnaire automobile que votre téléphone mobile ou votre dispositif mains libres Bluetooth n'affectera pas les systèmes électroniques de votre véhicule. Maintenez toujours toute votre attention sur la route et respectez les lois et règlements locaux qui restreignent l'utilisation d'appareils sans fil au volant.

Fonctions de repérage par GPS

Certains produits comportent des fonctions de repérage par GPS. Les fonctions de repérage d'un emplacement sont fournies « En l'état ». Sony Ericsson n'offre aucune représentation ou garantie quant à leur exactitude.

Rien ne garantit que l'utilisation par l'appareil des données de repérage ne sera pas interrompue, ni que ces données sont exemptes d'erreurs. En outre, l'accès aux données de repérage peut varier selon la disponibilité du service de réseau. Veuillez prendre note que la fonctionnalité peut être restreinte dans certains environnements, tels qu'à l'intérieur ou à proximité d'un bâtiment.

Attention: N'utilisez pas les fonctions GPS dans des conditions qui peuvent rendre la conduite dangereuse.
