

The compliance statement can be seen in User Guide of PYARM-2 because the size of the handportable and its identification label are so small that the compliance statement can't be printed visible enough.