RE: Compliance of labelling for Little Anne QCPR Sensor

This letter serves to confirm that it is impractical to display the compliance statement regarding to the size of the device, so the statement has been placed in the user manual.

In fact the following statement can be found page 33 of the user guide:

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC rules and RSS-210 of the Industry Canada rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

1. This device may not cause harmful interference, and
2. This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Your Sincerely,

Sylvain Bougoin
