

OPERATIONAL DESCRIPTION

When the user push one of the push buttons the microprocessor read the code (10 bit) defined from the dip switch and send this code together with the two bits of the selected channel to the RF transmitting section with O.O.K. modulation and P.W.M. bit codification.