

A black handheld electronic device, possibly a walkie-talkie or a similar communication device, is shown from a rear perspective. It has two silver antennas protruding from the top. The device is resting on a light-colored surface against a blue background. A white label with black text is affixed to the back of the device.

FCC ID : QV7-GC887552-7

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules.

Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.