Subject: FCC Class II Permissive change for FCC ID: R38YL3632A

To Whom It May Concern,

This is to request a Class II Permissive change for FCC ID: R38YL3632A, originally granted on 2017/03/02.

The Major change filed under this application is as below:

1. The memory changed from Samsung 20nm process memory to Samsung 18nm process memory, due to Samsung 20nm process memory EOL. The new memory chip is pin to pin compatible with original one
2. The back camera and front camera increase supplies; The main resources are Zhengqiao 5M back camera and Zhengqiao 2M front camera, The second resources: Kailong 5M back camera and Zhengqiao 2M front camera;
3. The RF part no changes.

Based on the above changes, we update the RE of 15B and SAR, Other testing results are from original model.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Name: Chen yanting
