EUT Info

The remote unit tested is a pre-production unit.

No modifications were made which were required for FCC compliance.

Due to memory restrictions in the unit a special "diagnostic mode" version of the firmware was used for testing. This software provides access to the test commands necessary to perform testing.